

HUMANITY IN ACTION
PAT COX
FELLOWSHIP

Parlementum Europeum
2016

Judy Goldstein

FOUNDER &
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
HUMANITY IN ACTION

Humanity in Action works at the intersection of international education and diversity to promote a new generation of global leaders. Through its highly regarded international fellowship programs, conferences, and extensive global network, HIA engages the aspirations of university students and young professionals to confront the complex challenges of pluralistic, democratic societies.

HIA organizes programs in many countries that have tragic histories grounded in racial, religious, and ethnic conflicts. Those conflicts have too frequently resulted in mass violence, ethnic cleanings, and genocide. The Holocaust is the primary historic reference for HIA's six programs in Europe. HIA programs connect past to present with the conviction that knowledge leads to action.

Today, as many societies are challenged by large-scale migration's economic, political, cultural, and religious effects, HIA's educational focus is critically important.

Over 16 years, and now with over 1500 fellows, HIA has built a unique and vibrant global network of students, young professionals and experts in diverse fields including diplomacy, government, communications, public health, international law, transitional justice, NGOs, and reconciliation. Humanity in Action confronts the challenges of diversity within the broad context of human rights and promotes the values of diversity, civic engagement, individual responsibility, and collaborative action.

DIRECTOR
PAT COX
HUMANITY IN ACTION
FELLOWSHIP

Martine Alonso Marquis

in Berlin. Martine was a Pat Cox Fellow in 2010 and she was recruited as a Foreign Policy Advisor and Chief of Staff to a member of the European Parliament. Martine has gained extensive work experience in the field of human rights with Oxfam, the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, and the Humanitarian Law Center in Belgrade and Pristina. Martine has also organized several educational workshops and trainings with the South Eastern European Initiative of the French-German Youth Office. Martine's work has focused on cross-cultural exchange, human rights, and post-conflict reconciliation. Martine studied social sciences in Berlin, as well as conflict studies and international relations in Paris where she obtained her Ph.D. in Political Science.

Martine Alonso Marquis is the Director of the Pat Cox - Humanity in Action Fellowship, and a Lecturer of International Relations at Sciences Po Paris. Her engagement with Humanity in Action began in 2003, when she participated in the summer program

Stay in touch with Martine!

Marko Barišić

HUMANITY IN ACTION SENIOR FELLOW

John Lewis Fellowship, 2015

Office of MEP Eduard KUKAN

ranging interests have led to projects in a variety of social-scientific and artistic areas, such as religious studies, psychology and filmmaking. Marko's intellectual perspective explores the linkages between archaeology and anthropology and motivates his intellectual and social engagement within BiH society. One of the ways Marko leverages his formal training in archaeology is by working with youth through education which places critical observation of the past and present at the forefront. In addition to the many projects Marko has conducted with several NGOs, he maintains his passion for organizing through volunteer actions with his local team of friends in Mostar — without whom he feels he would not be what he is today. Marko intends to continue to use his activism, scientific theory, and art in order to confront common stereotypes, contribute to a better understanding of the “Other,” and to constantly engage in critical observation of reality.

You can join the conversation!

If we fast-forward in time, what do you think the EU will be like in 50, 100, 300 years?

Stay in touch with Marko!

Mario A. Castillo Martínez

HUMANITY IN ACTION SENIOR FELLOW Paris, 2014

Office of MEP Renate
WEBER

California, helped translate a cognitive treatment program for HIV patients, and interned for the HIV, Health and Development Team at UNDP's Istanbul Regional Hub. To further his knowledge on international migration, border communities, and the protection of minorities, he completed the Global Minority Rights Summer School sponsored by the Tom Lantos Institute in Budapest, Hungary.

You can join the conversation!

If we fast-forward in time, what do you think the EU will be like in 50, 100, 300 years?

Stay in touch with Mario!

Łukasz Niparko

HUMANITY IN ACTION SENIOR FELLOW

Warsaw, 2014

Office of MEP Nirj DEVA

Łukasz from Poznań (Poland), is a graduate student at the European University Viadrina in Germany. At Viadrina, Łukasz specializes in international human rights law, rights of minorities, and migration. Łukasz graduated from St. Lawrence University (USA), where he studied Global Studies as well as Asian and European Studies. He is also an alumnus of the United World College of the American West (USA). Łukasz served with various NGOs, including Amnesty International USA, and Warsaw based Helsinki Foundation for Human Rights and Association for Legal Intervention. In the past few years, he has conducted academic researches on topics including socioeconomic development model of Kerala (India), Poland's post-1989 transformation, and minority rights in China. In 2015, Łukasz directed a summer school of tolerance and anti-discrimination in his hometown Poznań. His interests concern legal prevention of discrimination and international affairs. During his free time, Łukasz enjoys biking and hanging around Poznań as well as carrying out various community services. In the future, he hopes to become a human rights lawyer working to strengthen worldwide adherence to human rights.

You can join the conversation!

What role do human rights and fundamental values play in the EU today; what role should they be playing in your opinion?

Stay in touch with Łukasz!

STINE RESEN

HUMANITY IN ACTION SENIOR FELLOW

Copenhagen, 2014

Office of MEP Norica NICOLAI

You can join the conversation!

What role do human rights and fundamental values play in the EU today; what role should they be playing in your opinion?

Stine, a 2014 Humanity in Action Fellow, obtained her BA in History from the University of Copenhagen, specializing in modern Middle Eastern, and in particular, Israeli history and society. Her interest in the conflicts of the Middle East led her to undertake an MSc in Security Studies at University College London, School of Public Policy from which she graduated in September 2015. In her MSc dissertation she explored the stabilizing impact that alternative forms of governance can have in linguistically and ethnically divided societies. While studying Stine worked for a research library in Copenhagen and in London she volunteered for NGOs that work in development and with rights issues. Stine is particularly interested in the intersection of minority rights, governance and security, and in the summer of 2015 she was selected as a participant of the Global Minority Rights Summer School co-organized by the Tom Lantos Institute, Middlesex University London and the National University of Public Service, Budapest.

Stay in touch with Stine!

You can join the conversation!
How has your view on the European Union changed after working and living in its capital?

Pinar Sayan

HUMANITY IN ACTION SENIOR FELLOW

Copenhagen, 2013

Office of MEP Ernest MARAGALL

which she obtained the Jean Monnet Scholarship. She conducted PhD research with the support of an Erasmus scholarship at the Freie University Berlin, and is currently a PhD candidate at Marmara University, working on European Union Politics and International Relations. Pinar worked at the department of International Relations at Okan University as a Research Assistant. Since 2015, she has been working as the Turkey Director for the Imagine Center for Conflict Transformation, and as Turkey Editor for its publication Caucasus Edition. She also works as a freelance researcher and consultant. Pinar's success in a recent Humanity in Action grant competition enabled her to establish Roman Medya which aims to strengthen the strategic communication capacities of Roma NGOs, as well as to raise social awareness concerning Roma issues. Pinar's primary interest intersect human and civil rights and ethnic politics in Europe, the South Caucasus, and Turkey.

Pinar is a graduate of the department of Political Science and International Relations at Marmara University. She completed an MA in Political Science and International Relations at Bogazici University; and an MS in Comparative Politics at London School of Economics, for

Stay in touch with Pinar!

You can join the conversation!

What role do human rights and fundamental values play in the EU today; what role should they be playing in your opinion?

Corey Walker

HUMANITY IN ACTION SENIOR FELLOW
Berlin, 2008

Office of MEP Daniel BUDA

and as an intern in the Office of General Counsel of the Federal Communications Commission. Corey has developed national and international public policy experience with a leading public policy firm in Washington, D.C., and with the High Commissioner on National Minorities, an office within the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE) in the Hague. In 2011, Corey was selected as a Google Policy Fellow and his work with a media and technology think tank led to comment filings before the Federal Communications Commission and the Department of Energy. In addition to his training in the law, Corey specializes in media relations and communications, nonprofit strategic management consulting, nonprofit incorporation and development; regulatory compliance; corporate responsibility; and diversity & inclusion initiatives. He is fluent in French.

Stay in touch with Corey!

You can join the conversation!

What role do human rights and fundamental values play in the EU today; what role should they be playing in your opinion?

Oleksandra Zmyenko

HUMANITY IN ACTION SENIOR FELLOW
Warsaw, 2015

International Partnership for Human Rights

scholarship from 2012-2013 at Jagiellonian University; and at University Montesquieu Bordeaux IV, where she gained in-depth knowledge of legal concepts and analysis. Oleksandra spent a year undertaking challenging and complex work in the Human Rights section of the Legal Clinic of the Jagiellonian University. Her academic interests include international public and private law and human rights. Through Oleksandra's research work at the University of Montpellier III in the Legal Affairs Department, which was supported by the Ministry of Higher Education and Research and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of France, and her professional experience with IBM Krakow, she has developed an interdisciplinary approach. Since 2015, Oleksandra has collaborated with Poland's antiracist organization "Never Again". Oleksandra is a native Russian speaker, has bilingual Ukrainian and Polish proficiency, and has professional working proficiency in English and French.

HUMANITY IN ACTION
PAT COX FELLOWSHIP 2016

Oleksandra was born and raised in Odessa, Ukraine, and earned a master's degree in law in Poland. Oleksandra has studied widely: as a recipient of a Polish Government scholarship from 2008-2014; with the support of an Erasmus LLP

Stay in touch with Sasha!

SUPPORTERS & LECTURE HOSTS

Friedrich Naumann
STIFTUNG

FÜR DIE FREIHEIT

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

International Partnership
for Human Rights

OPEN SOCIETY FOUNDATIONS

MIGRATION POLICY GROUP

EXPAT CLUB
BRUSSELS

HUMANITY IN ACTION

International Crisis Group
WORKING TO PREVENT CONFLICT WORLDWIDE
European Union
EXTERNAL ACTION

European Network Against Racism
Réseau européen contre le racisme
Europäisches Netz gegen Rassismus

EUROPEAN WOMEN'S LOBBY
EUROPEEN DES FEMMES

APCO
worldwide®

HUMANITY IN ACTION

Pat Cox Fellowship

2016

JOIN THE PAT COX - HIA FAMILY!

CONTACT US

PROGRAM DIRECTOR
MARTINE ALONSO MARQUIS

EMAIL: M.ALONSOMARQUIS@HUMANITYINACTION.ORG

PHONE: +33 6 30 32 38 53

---

WEB: WWW.HUMANITYINACTION.ORG

PAT COX - HUMANITY IN ACTION FELLOWSHIP WOULD NOT BE POSSIBLE WITHOUT GENEROUS SUPPORT FROM

Friedrich Naumann
STIFTUNG

FÜR DIE FREIHEIT